

Foxberry expands the advisory board with Alvaro Ortiz

Press release

London, 10 February 2020: Foxberry Ltd (“Foxberry”), the London based index provider, has expanded its advisory board and welcomes Alvaro Ortiz as a senior advisor. The advisory board advises Foxberry on the company’s future direction and priorities.

Alvaro Ortiz has over 20 years of experience in Investment Banking, having been based in London, Paris, Dublin and Madrid. Prior to working at Foxberry and being CIO at Talmine AG, he was Head of Strategic Equity Transactions, first for Southern Europe and afterwards for the EMEA Region at Natixis since 2011. Prior to that Alvaro worked for Nexgen Financial Solutions in Paris and Dublin, developing the Corporate Equity Derivatives business for Spain and Portugal. Before that he worked for 7 years in Equity Capital Markets and Equity Derivatives at Société Générale. Alvaro started his career with AB Asesores-Morgan Stanley as a Corporate Finance Analyst, where he spent 4 years taking part in the most important Spanish Privatisations and IPOs of the late 90s. Alvaro is also a Member of the Board of Laboratorios Larrasa, a Spanish Company at the leading edge of Genetic Analysis worldwide. Alvaro holds a B.A. in Economics and a Degree in Law from ICADE in Spain.

David Sahlin, Chairman of Foxberry commented: “We are pleased to announce the addition of Alvaro and we are looking forward to working together. His professional network and solid experience in strategic transactions represent strong additions to our business”.
